Questions Parents Frequently Ask!

What's the difference between the Navy, Army and Air Force?
How do we decide if your child is up to the challenge?
What types of jobs are available?
What is the minimum time required to serve in the ADF?
What kind of lifestyle will your child have?
Will your child go on deployments?
What about your child’s welfare?
What if your child is under 18?
What are the leave entitlements?
Will your child receive health and dental care?
Will your child receive any extra allowances?
What education opportunities are available?
What other training opportunities are available?

Limited numbers: return slip immediately.

Family name: ..............................................................................................................................
Student class: ............................................................................................................................

I/or a family member will be attending with my child on Tuesday 6th September  Yes □